

From: Fran Gallati [mailto:development@baymca.org]
Sent: Monday, February 22, 2010 10:06 AM
To: Guarino, Tom
Subject: 7 Days Left: Vote for the Teen Center Project at Pepsi Refresh

Don't forget you can vote everyday! Because of your votes, the Teen Center Project is moving on up! With only 7 days left to vote, we need your help more than ever. Let's see if we can move further up the leader board today!

Vote for the Teen Center Project here: www.refresheverything.com/ymcateecenter

Did You Know?

The YMCA-PG&E Teen Center will offer a variety of academic programs from tutoring in individual subjects to college counseling workshops for teens and their parents.

Need Some Help Voting?

- Be sure to sign in or register before voting.
- Try using Explorer or Google Chrome, and Safari browsers (Firefox works for some people, but not all).
- Press the "Vote Here" button. If it still says "Vote Here", press it again until Pepsi thanks you for voting.
- If you still can't sign in/register, email development@baymca.org and we will help get you registered.

Next Steps

- Please don't forget to forward this email to coworkers, friends and family.
- If you're on Facebook or Twitter, place the URL in your status – social networking is the best way to promote voting!
- Vote for the Teen Center once per day EVERYDAY until the end of February.

Thanks again for showing Pepsi how much you believe teens should receive the academic, social and development skills they need to succeed in life.

Fran Gallati
President/CEO
Berkeley-Albany YMCA